SIR J. E. MILLAIS, P.R.A., 1868.

23 A DREAM AT DAWN

"Mr. Millais's 'Dream at Dawn' is of small size, but a gem of its kind. The artist has seldom created a more beautiful type than the lady in a white flowing night-dress, leaning over a balcony, encircled by blossoms and all kinds of greenery. The expression of the head is full of intense passion, although there is a certain dreamy vagueness in the eyes, waiting for the dawn."

PICTURES BY OLD MASTERS.

M. HOBBEEMA.

- 7100
89 A LANDSCAPE, with large and massive oaks in front, throwing deep and powerful shadows on the ground; behind them a building in half light, of a very subdued tone. In the centre of the picture another house, built of brick, in delicate colours and in full light. Other houses, over-shadowed with trees, lead deep into the middle distance. On the left is a wood with a single figure. Silvery clouds of singular transparency diversify the sky. This admirable picture—one of the largest the master ever painted—is inscribed “M. Hobbema, f. 1652” The fact of this picture having been in the possession of Mr. Ford’s family for four generations proves how early this great master was appreciated by the English. See Dr. Waagen, Vol. II. p. 225
